EPHEMERAL TREASURES

collection

In Ephemeral Treasures, the artist Antonio Segura Donat, known as Dulk, merges his passion for nature with his artistic mastery in two iconic pieces created in collaboration with Lladró: Soul Rider and Ephemeral Treasures. This collection is a reflection of the fragility of ecosystems and the urgent need to protect them. Each piece is like a dreamlike window into a changing world, where endangered species coexist in a delicate and ephemeral balance.

Ephemeral Treasures is inspired by the fauna of the Asian jungles, transforming Dulk's eponymous painting into a porcelain masterpiece. Each animal depicted, such as the peacock, the tiger, or the monkey, plays a key role in an allegory about the coexistence of species in fragile habitats. Through vibrant colors and meticulous detail, Dulk tells a thought-provoking visual story about the precarious situation of nature. The captivating beauty of the piece draws the viewer in, but as one delves deeper, a more profound message about the fragile state of natural ecosystems is revealed.

 Dulk

Soul Rider introduces a central character in Dulk's artistic universe: a protector of nature and guide for souls in danger. This porcelain creation marks the first time the character is depicted as an independent sculpture, moving from a symbolic guardian in Dulk's murals to a tangible presence in our daily lives.

Soul Rider stands on a "flower-skull", a symbol of the danger that nature faces - while his face and his banner are in the shape of a heart, synonymous with love as an antidote to fear.

This protective guardian is worked down to the smallest detail: the engraving of the flower, the clothing, the face with the bulging eyes and the ornate beak. Soft colors have been chosen for the decoration, with blues and creams predominating.

Soul Rider can also be seen as a symbol of hope and redemption. In this piece, Dulk uses the minute details in the porcelain to highlight the delicacy of this relationship between man and nature, with Soul Rider acting as a bridge between the two worlds.

"With more or less weight and in different ways, Soul Rider appears in almost all my works. It is a character who guides the souls of creatures—often threatened, injured or even dead—to a better world where human impact is not as aggressive or, at best, non-existent. For this special collaboration with Lladró, I found it very interesting to represent Soul Rider in a standalone form for the first time, extrapolating it into a real context so that it can become a part of our everyday lives." — Dulk

Soul Rider is characterized by its intricate ornamentation and reliefs. The organic shapes on the face, the clothing or the flower on which it rests reflect the craftsmanship required for this type of work, where each curve and texture has a symbolic and aesthetic intention.

Welcome to Utopical, a world where imagination and design come together to create new realities. Inspired by nature, this collection strikes the ideal balance between functionality and art.

Each piece in the Utopical collection captures a unique moment: a centerpiece that reflects the pure beauty of nature; and a lamp that shines with the calm stillness of a hummingbird. Contemporary creations with elegant designs and an abundance of details to make any interior truly special.

This centerpiece blends nature and contemporary design to perfection. A charming bird, half-real half-imagined, is decorated with golden luster on its wings and crest, and framed by three large matte porcelain leaves, etched by hand. A functional object that captivates with its decorative central figure and wealth of detail.

The translucent porcelain lithophane captures a scene that melds design and nature. A hummingbird, decorated with metallic effects and golden luster on its beak, is perched on the edge of a shade reminiscent of a flower.

Equipped with a LED module with a touch dimmer switch to adjust the level of brightness, it offers up to 7 hours of autonomy. Its functional design is combined with the handcrafted beauty of porcelain, making it a truly special and unique piece.

Utopical transforms any corner into a space where nature meets cutting-edge design, offering creations that captivate at first sight.

Minnie TOTAL BLACK

Disney
MOUSE

Minnie Total Black is a ground-breaking vision of one of popular culture's standout characters. Along with Mickey Mouse, her eternal boyfriend, Minnie is part of the world's most famous mouse duo and is one of the most iconic creations in the Disney universe.

In this version, Minnie retains all her charm but is given a bold, contemporary twist. The power of black, the predominant color, in both glazed and matte finishes, creates an unexpected effect.

Minnie appeared for the first time alongside Mickey in animated shorts released in 1928. The couple became extraordinarily popular very quickly. Their adventures, shared with fellow companions Donald, Goofy and Pluto, laid the foundation for the vast entertainment empire that is Disney today. With her signature round ears, eternal smile and charm, Minnie has earned a place in the pantheon of pop culture in her own right.

BESPIN BATTLE

Set against the backdrop of the Galactic Civil War, the duel at Cloud City on the planet Bespin, is one of the most iconic moments in the Star Wars saga. The fight culminates in the unforgettable moment when Darth Vader™ reveals his true identity: he is, in fact, Anakin Skywalker™, Luke's father.

Arguably the most emblematic scene in Star Wars, it has been faithfully recreated in this porcelain sculpture. The passion, tension and energy of the fight are masterfully captured, and further enhanced by a decoration that respects every detail of the original characters.

The look of determination on Luke's face as well as Darth Vader's unmistakable mask, armor and imposing cape, are all brought to life thanks to a combination of matte and glazed finishes in black tones. Each detail, from the costumes to the weapons, has been meticulously handcrafted, with lusters applied to add metallic effects.

This unique piece is completed with the lightsabers, made in red and blue glass, which are attached to the sculpture with magnets. The wooden base includes a metal plaque that underscores its exclusiveness.

A must-have creation for all fans of the saga, immortalizing in porcelain the greatest battle between the light and the dark sides of the Force.

Stormtroopers, the Imperial soldiers of the Galactic Empire, are the assault troops of the world's most famous fantasy and science fiction saga. Their unmistakable white armor and distinctive helmets have made them an iconic symbol for millions of Star Wars fans around the globe.

This porcelain sculpture faithfully recreates these universal pop culture icons. Handcrafted in glazed white porcelain, the piece includes details painted in deep black and subtle touches of gray. It comes on a base with an identifying plaque and serial number.

This creation is part of a limited edition of 1138 units, a highly meaningful number for Star Wars fans which recurs frequently in George Lucas's films. The reference can be traced back to 1971 and THX 1138, Lucas's first film as a director.

LADY LUCK

Following the international success of her highly personal version of the Firefly lighting collection, the Mexican designer Olga Hanono surprises us again with Lady Luck, a proposal that blends traditional craftsmanship with contemporary design.

Lady Luck comprises two unique creations: a jewelry box and a vase in matte white porcelain, decorated with a wavy pattern that defines their shape and with a butterfly as the core element. Chosen by Hanono as the emblem of the collection, the butterflies are superbly modeled and painted by hand with great precision and detail. This symbol embodies good luck and transformation, key concepts that served as inspiration for these pieces and give them special meaning.

With Lady Luck, Hanono redefines porcelain as much more than a decorative material. Each piece reflects the perfect balance between tradition, functionality and design, with that extra special touch that transforms an everyday object into a statement of style.

The collection stands out for its meticulous craftsmanship and unique aesthetic, the result of the innovative vision of Olga Hanono, a key figure in international luxury who infuses each creation with her unique and fascinating character.

A BRIGHT IDEA

by MARCANTONIO

Here at Lladró we make the ordinary extraordinary. The classic glass light-bulb is given an unexpected twist in the A Bright Idea collection, turning it into porcelain. Under the watchful eye of the Italian designer Marcantonio, this essential everyday object is reborn as a unique, creative and sustainable design.

These bulbs not only provide lighting but also symbolize the eureka moment when a brilliant idea is born and celebrate the bond between creativity and light. Handcrafted in porcelain, they provide a warm and original touch to any interior, while further exploring the infinite possibilities of this noble material.

Known for a multidisciplinary focus that combines design, art and nature, Marcantonio reimagines the light bulb in two surprising models: Feather Bulb and Oak Bulb. In the former, the surface is brought to life by delicate feathers; in the latter, the porcelain is decorated with the leaves of an oak tree in bas relief. When lit, the patterns come to life, with warm enveloping reflections that give any interior a special character.

This collaboration turns such a common everyday object as a light bulb into an artistic and functional design, taking porcelain beyond its conventional boundaries. Each piece stands out for its meticulous craft process and for the ability to play with light, demonstrating how a sustainable natural material like porcelain can transform something so ordinary into a magical creation. Because Lladró not only lights up interiors; it lights up ideas.
